Introduction

Peter's Bio

Hello and welcome. This intro serves several purposes. The first very likely necessary one is that many of you will not know who I am, have never met me, so you should have a rough idea about who I am and what my connection is to the transit field and the transit forecast.

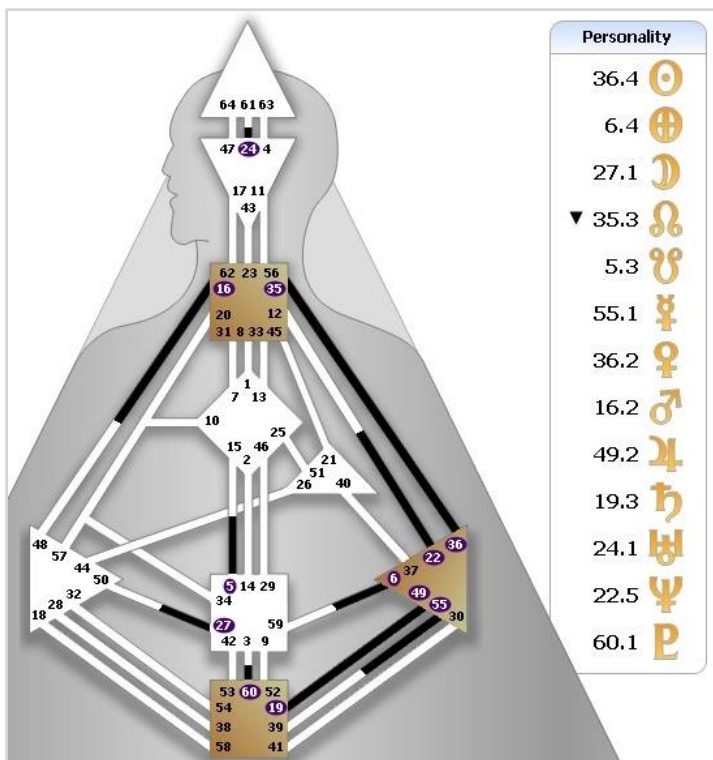

I've been in Human Design for a very long time. I'm a 3/5 emotional Generator, with a lot of energy; you can see that. I've not only been an analyst and teacher for a long time, but from the very beginning of my career in working in Human Design, I have been fascinated by the observation of the transit field from several points of views, and this is what I can and will share with you if you allow me to do that.

The Importance of Understanding the Transit Field

Of course, we can ask, what is so important about the transit field? Why should we care at all? Don't we have Strategy and Authority? Isn't it enough to make the correct decisions out of our Strategy and Authority?

Yes, this is not meant to replace in any way Strategy and Authority, and hopefully your PHS process as well. But as you will see in a moment, looking at the transit field is very supportive for your deconditioning process and also for your learning.

I took an example in order to illustrate what I mean. That is, this is the actual transit field some minutes before I started to record the intro. We are not looking at the details right now, but we have to realize that the transit field is always there. It is the one conditioning you can practically not be aware of. You cannot see it, and you cannot avoid it.

Think about that. We normally say correctly that the most important conditioning are people in our lives. That's true.

But if you have somebody close to you, if somebody is together in the same space with you, you are aware of it. It is a conditioning, but it is a conditioning you can directly observe. If you are in Human Design, you understand that there is mutual conditioning going on.

But the transit field, you cannot see the transit field. You can learn to feel it, but that takes a long time and will never be complete. Most importantly, you cannot avoid it. You can go to the deepest cave in the Himalayas and it still will get you.

The Best and Cheapest Teacher

So, you should be aware of what is conditioning you 24 hours a day, seven days a week. By becoming aware, we get the goodies. The first goody is, and Ra said this very early on in teaching Human Design, the transit is the best and by the way, cheapest teacher you can have.

I do work with Human Design and I would almost say I have a certain reputation for knowing an extreme amount about the Gates, about each possible activation in the Gates. Where does it come from? Yes, of course, from teaching in theory, from observation of myself and others, but the greatest source of my knowledge is the real life observation of the impact of the transit field in the general public, in the collective, and of course also with myself and human beings around me.

Being Prepared

The transit field teaches you the many facets. An abstract activation can take on how it can look in different contexts and frames. Secondly, there is also the possibility to be prepared for certain things. If you have the Channel of Transitoriness, like we have now, you know there will be crisis. There will be crisis in the world, there will be crisis in your life, things will go wrong, changes will occur. You will not be in control of it. Everybody on the planet is emotionally defined and emotionally manifesting today. That makes a difference.

And if you know, you are prepared. Awareness makes a difference, and seeing the transit field makes it much easier to be aware. So, it is a valuable tool for practical purposes, and also we are in the last seven year cycle of the old world that is falling apart. That means, looking back will not help you in the future.

Nothing will help you in the future, except Strategy and Authority and looking at the one thing that is sure. It is obvious that you and I don't know what tomorrow will be, but we can see the planetary forces working and we can be prepared, even if you don't know how it will look until it realizes on the surface. So, it is my deepest conviction that you need to know and that the transit field is a very valuable tool for your process and for your general survival and well-being.

The Secret Order of How the Program Works

Now, this is just a teaser. Everybody who wants to sell something will say, “Hey, guys, I’m really good. I’m a specialist.” Now, I’ll show you something you haven’t seen before, I’m very sure about that. I’ll show you the great secret order of how the program works, and how that so-called reality is created later on our plane.

The Ruler of the Cycle: Pluto

We’ve seen our frame, we’ve seen our species, we’ve seen our world. There is a ruler of the cycle and that is Pluto. You have to understand that Pluto is not part of a polarity. Pluto is a singularity. It is the law of the cycle, the ruler of the cycle. It brings you the absolute that you cannot avoid.

It burns to ashes, and then maybe there is a resurrection. So, therefore, where Pluto is in the transit field shows you what is the absolute that must take place; you have to handle it and there is no way out, there is only the confrontation. So, you cannot run from Pluto, please understand that.

But Pluto is far away, we cannot see it. Remember, for a very long time, the last three ones, Pluto, Neptune, and Uranus, you couldn't see them, they didn't exist in the collective consciousness. But nevertheless, they have their impact, and Pluto is the first one. Then the polarity starts.

The Polarity of Neptune and Uranus

In the polarity, in the eternal game of change, we have Neptune that is dissolving the old, and we have Uranus that brings the new. Now, understand what that means for you understanding if you just know that, not just looking at Pluto — "yeah well Pluto is in Gate 60, you have a limitation" — yes, we have a limitation. But it is a limitation that nobody on the planet will be able to avoid. And this limitation, the pressure of limitation leads to what? To the dissolution of something, Neptune, and to the appearance of something new, Uranus. And this is still invisible. That is just the power of forces.

The Polarity of Saturn and Jupiter

Then we are sort of downsizing the frequency, as we are moving in the direction of the material plane. We meet another polarity, a polarity we are not aware of, but it's not something we wouldn't know about. There is the polarity of Saturn bringing the limitation, the restraint, the borders. And we have Jupiter which is the counterpart to that, the growth and expansion.

In this polarity I have that "balanced" growth here, because of course, it's never really balanced. There is always some kind of imbalance. Jupiter in a stronger position, Saturn in a stronger position. Sometimes there is more restraint, sometimes there is more growth.

So, here we already can feel that things get a little bit more material, more earthly. But this is the dance, the eternal dance that has to find a balance in the moment, and this balance in the moment is what we can truly watch in the world, the outcome of what we have seen above there.

So, I hope I could demonstrate to you that there is available knowledge that will be put into practice and will give you an understanding of what's going on, that is beyond what you knew until now.

The Offer

Finally, what will you get? What is the deal? What am I offering you? The forecast will cover a period of three months, so that is a quarter of the Mundane Year. Why do I use the Mundane Year? Because this is about the mundane world. And, let's say, the calendar of the Mundane Year is important for all of us, and it is easy to follow.

There is a restriction. We will look at the movements of the slow moving planets from Jupiter to Pluto, and also taking into consideration the Nodes of the Moon, because these are the transits that really program us all and that will be seen in the collective.

The fast moving planets are also, of course, of interest. But this is of interest if you want to look at a specific week, at a specific date. But for the general picture, it would be rather confusing than supporting the creation of the general picture.

And we will have a look from two very different perspectives. One is more for the collective—understanding circuit, sensing circuit—that is, from the collective perspective. What does it mean in politics, in the economy, in society?

The other one is an individualized one: What does it mean for you personally? That will, of course, depend on the particularities of your BodyGraph, and I will not look at all of your BodyGraphs. But we can look at the possible situations. A Channel closing for example (if the Gate at the other end is defined in your chart). Or a transit over a Gate you also have defined, or a transit over a Gate you have open. In that way you will get individualized information that is supposed to help you in handling the quality and in observing as precise as possible.

Finally, we will also look at the special dynamics of some days. There is an order of changes during a period of time. If you look closely at that order of changes, and then also take the positions of fast moving planets during some days into consideration, we will see a living picture; like a movie, it gets alive, it is moving, there is a dynamic in it. It is not regular. There are periods where planets do not change Gates. This could be for weeks, like the slow ones, that they do not change Gates.

Then all of sudden, within three, four or five days, the whole situation is changing. And in that you get in touch, I call it the aliveness of the program, and you will start to see how it works.

The practical value for you, my dears, is—I'm a very practical person. You have seen at the beginning that I'm a 3/5. I'm not interested in academic discussions, I'm interested in tools that work. And you can avoid unnecessary mistakes.

Gate 60

I'll give you one taste of it. Gate 60 has already ruled the last year, and it is going to rule for many more years. Gate 60 is the pressure of limitation, we know that. And it brings the old to the surface, the old limitations are coming to the surface. And that is not only true for the world, but also true for you personally. But how does it come to the surface?

I'll give you an example: All of a sudden you have a back pain, a real back pain. You cannot move. It hurts you very much, it is difficult to sit. What do you want, then? Very naturally, you want to get rid of it. You want to liberate yourself from the pain.

So, there are many things you could do in order to achieve that, and this will be the mistake. I'm not saying you should suffer, but you have to understand that the symptom on the surface, in that case a physical symptom, is a body language that gives you a key to where the true problem may be found because you could have too much on your back, and that is the reason you have the symptom. This is the old limitation becoming visible, surfacing.

If in that situation you not only know how to get rid of the pain, but you go inside and you look at what that 'too much' is that you have on your back or on your shoulders, or wherever it is. Under such a transit you have the one-in-a-lifetime chance to get rid of it, not of the symptom, but of the true cause. If you don't know that, how likely is it that you will do that. Normally, you would be very happy if you just could get rid of the pain.

Surfers of Destiny

So, in that sense, the waves that will come during the next years will be very high, and will smash many, many people. But there are also the surfers. The surfers like to ride waves. They are 30 or 40 meters high, and they will kill anybody else. But if you have learned to surf them, it is a joy. And I guarantee you, digging into the transit knowledge, starting to observe, you will become surfers of destiny and this is what you and I need to become in order to have some fun during the next years.

So, I truly hope—I will not see you, but you will see a little bit of me—I hope very much that I will be able to inspire you and support you in your personal process.
