Welcome to the 2019 Rave New Year Forecast - Part 1

Hey, hey my fellow travelers, on this spaceship Earth, spiraling through space and time.

Welcome to the Rave New Year Forecast, 2019. And what a year this is going to be. Hang on to your strategy and Inner Authority, because there is a wild ride ahead. In this forecast, we will take you step by step through the transit influences for the Rave Year, and give you a foundation, in how, you can use the year ahead to your advantage – as a year for building your active awareness, for fully living your experiment, of your unique Human Design.

Part 1 is designed to give you background material on the Rave New Year, The Program, and how it affects us.

You will be introduced to:

- The planetary influences and their themes
- The mechanics of openness and attraction
- The conditioning mechanics of transits

We will discuss how to recognize these influences, and why observing the Rave New Year transits can be valuable to your experiment with Human Design.

This Part 1 of the forecast includes an in-depth look at the global conditioning patterns of the Rave New Year 2019, how to recognize them, seeing them in action in the world and in your own life, and the benefits of observation.

This provides you with the material you need to gain a practical understanding of transit mechanics and the dominant influences for 2019 and how to recognize them.

Let's get started.

The Rave New Year Forecast is Fundamentally a Transit Weather Forecast

The transits of the Rave New Year are frequency patterns, interpreted by the mind, that will arise over and over throughout the year. It is easy to become caught up in the planetary transits because they influence all of humanity – we are in a material program which promotes a homogenized way of thinking and acting.

Learning about the planetary transits help us to become aware of what is not us, of what is not our individual life. When we learn about the Rave Year ahead, it is a finger pointing us towards what we can become aware of, without becoming identified with it, or acting upon it. It becomes the basis of our wisdom about the world, and what is not us.

It can be valuable to remember that this is the transit weather passing through; however, it is a weather pattern that will come up over and over throughout the year. We do not need to identify ourselves with the weather passing through; it is simply something that is experienced through the body and observed with the mind. We don't make up stories about how the weather is doing something to us, or that we must do something about the weather; it is simply a fact of life here on planet Earth. Just like the weather – the Rave New Year transit themes are a fact of life on planet Earth every year.

If we know it is going to be rainy, we can be prepared, and take an umbrella with us; if we know the Rave New Year forecast, we can be prepared for what the homogenized world around us will be caught up in, and therefore, what to look for in the transit weather.

What is The Program?

The Program is a term that Ra used to describe the way the planetary transits operate together. We live in a vast neutrino ocean of approximately 30 trillion neutrinos per square inch per second; and we take in their energy, which arises primarily from the core of stars. Each neutrino travels to us across the solar system; and as they pass across or through a planet, the neutrino picks up the frequency imprint of that planet.

Each planet has a specific orbit in our solar system, which is described in Human Design through the Rave Mandala wheel, from the point of view of planet Earth. As each planet moves in its orbit, it passes through each of the gates in the Rave Mandala wheel. The Sun takes 365 days to pass through all 64 gates, where Pluto takes 251.9 years to do the same.

When we look at a transit of a specific day, we are seeing a snapshot of the planet's movement around the wheel, and the specific energies that the neutrinos are bringing to us.

The combination of all these planetary aspects and their gates is called The Program.

By observing The Program for the Rave New Year, we can learn to recognize these imprinted themes in action around us, and not get caught up in acting upon them, or identifying with them. Simply stated – energy is not personal.

Each planetary body has its own unique frequency theme, which is then expressed through the imprinted neutrinos passing by, and through that planetary body.

When we are looking at the Rave New Year Transits, we are looking at the over-arching, global themes for the entire year. Their potential influence is in the way our mind is conditioned to think, with a particular direction or focus. We can also become caught up in identifying with the homogenized world, which amplifies this same conditioning.

Each planet's frequency for the coming year, expressed through the specific gate it is transiting, brings a unique energy transmission, which can be experienced by the body, and observed by the mind.

- The Sun/Earth provide the conditioned theme that throughout 2019, what The Program is pushing for our imagined survival. The Sun puts the mind's attention on the theme, and the Earth grounds it, tries to make it a reality
- The Moon provides the conditioned focus
- The Nodes of the Moon form the conditioned viewpoint through which The Program pushes us to look at the year's theme playing out
- Mercury provides the conditioned communication theme
- Venus provides the conditioning propaganda, the headlines or the standards
- Mars provides the conditioned force for change, or immature actions
- Jupiter provides the conditioned rules or the guidance
- Saturn provides the conditioning caution, that which can bring retribution, if ignored
- Uranus provides the conditioned distraction
- Neptune provides conditioning misinformation
- Pluto provides the conditioned truth

However, each of us have our own imprint of the planets, and their gate energies, that make up our individual BodyGraph. Our very strategy, and Inner Authority, arise through the specifics of the planetary imprint of our design. When we are operating correctly, we are living a life that is built upon the specifics of our design, through each planetary aspect and their frequencies.

When the mind is running the life, it runs on The Program; it is a distorted, and homogenized way of life – acting and reacting to the transit themes and their influences. And, if The Program provides a transit in a gate that is open in our design, the mind will be very attracted to acting upon it.

By learning about The Program, and specifically the Rave New Year programming, we can learn to observe these themes in action around us. Slowly, we can become familiar with these themes, and avoid being identified with them, or initiating action based upon them.

Remember, the transits are here to be observed, and self-observation builds our wisdom, and potential for awareness in the now.
